This must be signed by each student and at least one parent/guardian, and submitted to NCCMI with program tuition payment before acceptance in the NCCMI program is considered complete.

Section One: NCCMI Guidelines and Policies

CALENDAR/CURRICULUM

NCCMI operates from September through May. Additional weeks may be added depending upon state health situation. Families will be informed of any changes to the original schedule. Families request a specific day for their group on the registration form and NCCMI places compatible students and coaches together.

Each group schedule is unique and is based upon coaches' availability and the Director's recommendation for number of rehearsals. This can vary, depending upon the musicians' ages and levels.

In general, groups will have one session per week, except for holidays. These weekly sessions will be either a coaching or a rehearsal session or both (back-to-back). Parent Coordinator's lead the scheduling process for their group. The agreed-upon group calendar should not be changed unless ALL families and coaches are able to make the change. Note important information about "Notification of Absences" below.

COACHING SESSIONS- 16 per year

Ensembles receive a total of 16 coaching sessions from September–May. Each group is assigned a team of two professional musician/educators who meet in alternating sessions with the group. Coaching sessions are 90 minutes in length for most ensembles. Parents are not expected to attend the coaching sessions unless the group is beginning level/younger. In this case, at least one parent should attend in order to take notes, to help the students in their subsequent student-led rehearsals. Note: Sessions with coaches external to NCCMI are not permitted without the express permission of the Executive Director.

STUDENT-LED REHEARSAL SESSIONS- (number determined by Executive Director)

Ensembles are expected to have additional student-led rehearsals, the number depending upon the level of the group. Student rehearsal sessions can be scheduled "back-to-back" with regular coachings, or they can take place on separate days, as convenient for each group. Rehearsals will be 60 or 90 minutes, depending upon the level and ages of the musicians. For beginning/younger ensembles, parents are asked to help with the practice sessions, using techniques and tools suggested by the group's coaches. As groups become more experienced, less parental help is needed.

REQUIRED EVENTS

Performance/participation at one of each type of event is required for all students: Orientation, ONE Performance Review Concert, ONE Spring Formal Concert, ONE Master Class OR Workshop, ONE Community Engagement (Outreach) Concert, ONE Team Genius Project Presentation, and ONE Special Event. Some sessions and events will take place on virtual platforms as health precautions dictate.

Those who perform in 3 or more Community Engagement events will receive the Director's Award for Community Engagement.

Details about each type of event are listed below.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW CONCERTS- January

Each group is required to perform at ONE January Performance Review. This is a performance opportunity open to family and friends. Following the Performance Review, each group receives written feedback and performance scores from the faculty. It is a great way to hear the other ensembles in the program. These could take place on a virtual platform.

SPRING FORMAL CONCERTS- May

The NCCMI season culminates in open performances by all groups at a concert venue in Raleigh. Students are required to perform at ONE concert, but are encouraged to attend all of them. These could take place on virtual platform.

MASTER CLASSES - Can fulfill this requirement only as a group!

Students are required to attend or perform in ONE master class OR workshop and are encouraged to audit as many events as they wish. These enriching events are provided exclusively for NCCMI students as part of the tuition cost. NCCMI students, parents, guests are encouraged to attend as many additional events as they like. Events take place throughout the program year, including some on virtual spaces.

Master Classes: To fulfill this requirement with a Master Class performance, the ensemble must perform together. Master classes provide an opportunity for ensembles to perform in a class setting for national or internationally-recognized artists (including NC Symphony soloists and Chamber Music Raleigh guest artists). Following each group's "performance," guest artists/teachers work with groups in front of the rest of the class. Performance attire is expected for performers (see below). The schedule of master classes will be available in early September.

WORKSHOPS- Can fulfill this requirement as a group or as separate individuals!

Students are required to attend or perform in ONE master class OR workshop and are encouraged to audit as many events as they wish. These enriching events are provided exclusively for NCCMI students as part of the tuition cost. NCCMI students, parents, guests are encouraged to attend as many additional events as they like. Events take place throughout the program year, including some on virtual spaces.

Workshops: To fulfill this requirement with Workshop participation, members of a group can participate individually, apart from their regular ensemble.

Subjects can include Public Speaking, Intro to Improv, How to Make Collaborative Videos, and a Side-by-Side Workshop with the Community Music School. The schedule of workshops will be available in early September.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT EVENTS- Many options throughout the year.

Ensembles must perform in ONE Community Engagement event. Also referred to as "Outreach," these events provide cultural entertainment to populations that might not otherwise be able to attend concerts. Parent Coordinators will help each group to identify the opportunities that work within their schedule. Options include: retirement communities, libraries, Pop Up Parks Concerts, schools, etc.

TEAM GENIUS PROJECT PRESENTATIONS- Optional; counts towards Community Engagement requirement. Presentation dates in March/April

Each participating group prepares and presents a "Team Genius" project during the second semester. These independent, creative projects offer a way for students to engage with their music in a way not offered by coachings and other events. Possible topics include researching a composer, arranging a pop tune, and creating a musical storybook.

IMPACT SERIES ATTENDANCE

Students are required to attend ONE Impact Series concert. Each student can fulfill this requirement individually, apart from their regular ensemble.

Faculty concerts: NCCMI Artist/Teachers showcase master chamber works in uniquely curated programs. These professional concerts are available free of charge for the whole Triangle community.

Other Special Events: Lectures by exceptional musicians, Artist Profile events, etc.

ATTENDANCE/EQUIPMENT/ATTIRE

NOTIFICATION OF ABSENCES

If a player is unable to attend a scheduled rehearsal or coaching session, they must notify the other ensemble members and Parent Coordinator at least three days in advance in order to reschedule the session. Cancellation less than 24 hours in advance or absence of an individual player from more than two scheduled rehearsals may result in dismissal from the program without a refund.

Exception to this policy: cases of sudden illness.

LATE ARRIVAL / EARLY DEPARTURE- Plan to arrive for your sessions 5-10 minutes early!

Each player must arrive on time and remain for the full duration of the rehearsal. If a student is tardy or leaves early for 3 or more sessions in a semester, the coordinator or lead teacher will notify the Director for possible disciplinary action.

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

NCCMI LEADERSHIP ENSEMBLES

Students in 10th grade or higher who are either in the advanced or competitive categories can audition for a Leadership Award each spring. Scholarships range from $200–Full Award, applicable in the following year. Students given full awards can be placed in Leadership Ensembles to represent NCCMI at the highest level of commitment. These ensembles will get the opportunity to create a professional recording for possible broadcast or preliminary competition requirements and might receive additional coaching sessions at no additional cost. Outstanding individual musicians—who auditioned for but were not placed in a Leadership Ensemble—may be offered full or partial scholarships. These Leadership Musicians can be placed in other advanced ensembles.

DIRECTOR'S AWARDS FOR ACHIEVEMENT

Each year, the Director recognizes musicians at the season's final concert for their dedication and musical achievement. These include Director's Awards for Outstanding Musicians and Community Engagement Award for three or more Outreach Performances.

INTERNSHIPS/LEADERSHIP- Give back to the Community and Build your Resume!

NCCMI offers internship and leadership opportunities to our older students. Students in 10th grade or above with at least one year with NCCMI can apply to be an intern. These students learn much about the “behind the scenes” work of a non-profit organization. Some jobs include office work, peer mentoring, scheduling manager, and newsletter editor. The lead intern may be paid.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY, EQUITY AND HEALTH GUIDELINES

COURTESY AND RESPECT

Chamber Music is a collaborative process built upon mutual respect and openness to constructive criticism. Our young artists demonstrate respect towards teachers, other students and the music which they are playing.

Individual preparation for all sessions is required as directed by the teachers.

Musicians and families are also reminded to be respectful of venues and spaces where sessions or concerts take place. These are provided to us by community partners and NCCMI families. Show courtesy towards these valued friends of NCCMI.

EQUITY, ACCESSIBILITY AND INCLUSION

North Carolina Chamber Music Institute seeks to create a welcoming environment for all students and to provide concerts for all members of the community. NCCMI is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities, providing them with equal access to the curriculum, accessible facilities at partner organizations and performing locations along with all programs and services. Our goal is for NCCMI students to become self-advocates who are responsible, resilient, self-aware and engaged in their musical learning experience.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

NCCMI will work with students and families who need financial support, to ensure that qualified and accepted students can participate in full.

HEALTH AND SAFETY GUIDELINES

The health and safety of students, staff and families is a priority for NCCMI. If current health guidelines indicate an increased health risk, NCCMI may require social distancing and larger spaces for in-person sessions, as well as the wearing of masks, among other things. Schedules and events and classes listed herein may be adjusted for health and safety, and some sessions or events might take place using virtual platforms. No particular schedule or repertoire of classes or events is guaranteed. NCCMI reserves the right to make adjustments in its discretion based on the health and safety of all participants, and schedules and events may otherwise be canceled or rescheduled for reasons outside of NCCMI's control.
